

Retreat into history with The Crossing and the Canadian Museum of Making

Just steps off the beaten path lie local hidden gems awaiting your discovery. Combining the Cochrane area's rich history with the art of rejuvenation, escape the ordinary and uncover the extraordinary on your weekend getaway.

Nestled on the scenic banks of the Ghost River is The Crossing, a charming bed-and-breakfast-style retreat. Enjoy one night of private accommodations (Saturday July 09, 2022) at this gateway to 145 acres of picturesque wilderness. Situated only a stone's throw away from Cochrane, The Crossing offers a quiet haven from the pressures of everyday life, and an invitation to connect with great company as you savour a mouth-watering dinner expertly paired with a glass of hand selected wine and a chef-inspired breakfasts.

The Crossing provides a quintessential experience for travellers and retreat hosts alike. The expansive property boasts beautiful photo opportunities, including incredible night sky watching uninterrupted by light pollution. Health and wellness and outdoor enthusiasts will delight in the tranquillity with a front row seat to the idyllic riverfront, plus access to walking trails on the property.

The unique rooms at The Crossing are impeccably decorated with cozy antique furniture, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. A stay here is ideal for those looking to relax and create invaluable memories in a significantly historical area. This endearing venue offers exceptional hospitality, delicious cuisine, and leisurely activities, providing the perfect catalyst to disconnect from technology (there are no TVs here!).

After a fresh and hearty breakfast, take an exclusive tour of the privately owned Canadian Museum of Making (Sunday July 10, 2022). The personal collection of machinery and tools has become a renowned exhibition, chronicling the mechanical wonders that led to our modern-day technology.

This incredible passion project displays iconic Albertan oilfield machinery, which will provide insight into the invaluable contributions made from our province. Discover machinery from the Industrial Revolution in Canada, Great Britain, and the United States, as well as African metalwork, a Linotype, and one of the world's first electric cars. Each item has been painstakingly restored to working order, creating a comprehensive preservation of our history with technology.

Peel back the layers of time and dig into the inspiring, one-of-a-kind experiences waiting for you at The Crossing at Ghost River and the Canadian Museum of Making. Make your weekend one to remember and book your stay with us today.
